"ART NOUVEAU" HAS BEEN SELECTED AS THE THEME FOR THIS YEARBOOK. NEAR THE CLOSE OF THE EIGHTEEN HUNDRED'S, ART NOUVEAU REACHED THE ZENITH OF ITS POPULARITY. THE CENTURY ENDED AS ARTISTS TURNED MUNDANE OBJECTS INTO EXPRESSIONS OF BEAUTY.

THIS YEARBOOK FOLLOWS LATE NINETEENTH-CENTURY ART STYLES TO SYMBOLIZE THE CLOSE OF A DECADE AND TO INTEGRATE NOSTALGIA WITH CHANGING TIMES.

Tigerama Looks Into The Past

There were the Roaring Twenties, the Depressed Thirties, the War Marred Forties, the Rock-n-Roll Fifties, and the Radical Sixties . . . and then there are the Seventies. Wrapped up in the trials and tribulation of the late 60's, the early 70's were not clearly defined. Characteristics, too, of previous decades lingered as we moved into the new decade, unsure of what was to come.

Through our involvement in the Viet Nam War, the nation sadly experienced an overwhelming amount of violence and death — not only from the casualties of the war itself, but also from the violent protests and riots such as Kent State that were a result of the war.

Death became a reality at Groveton when fellow classmates; Bill Daly, Bob Alymer, Bill Bruso, Hartley Maddox, Willie D'Martino and more recently Chris Hansen and Robert Brummett lost their lives. We said good-by to some of our heroes, B-B-B Bing, The King (Elvis), Golda Meir and Groucho.

If the public had their way some government leaders would be serving their life sentences in jail. Corruption hit an all time high when Tricky Dick and his gang of "faithful" White House aides pulled the plug on trust in government. The question: was justice done? . . . Pardon me, Gerald.

The Fairfax School Board was not untouched by the scandalous trend as the recently appointed student member embezzled funds for personal use (scuba diving equipment) glug . . . glug . . .!

In 1976 we realized our age but didn't lie about it. A new and fresh spirit transcended — "The Spirit of '76." While the nation was reviewing its heritage, the Groveton Community, too, looked back with the publishing of Snake Hill to Spring Bank.

But as we celebrated the Bicentennial, prices went up and the dollar went down. The government had survived 200 years but couldn't stop the price of a 10¢ candy bar from going up to 25¢.

Then came the Energy Crisis. We helplessly watched the price of gas sky-rocket beyond our pockets and black was surely beautiful when oil became more scarce than gold. Realizing our resources were diminishing, our unwritten motto became "Bring in the new and recycle the old." At Groveton G.A.S.P. started its aluminum can raffles. Solar energy became a serious consideration for the future and Groveton heralded the idea by having its own Sun-day (G.O.R.P. and all). We even attempted to save energy by coming up with a test-tube baby. With a slap on the beaker a cry of new life was heard 'round the world.

We were getting more intelligent and the School Board gave birth to the idea of a competency test to prove it. The new grading scale followed and students began to really sweat.

Another hot item was arch rival Fort Hunt, which tragically burned to a crisp. The issue was a hot potato passed between parents and the School Board as the solution to "who gets Fort Hunt, and for how long" was solved. Yet somehow the students of Groveton always found a way to step out of the frying pan.

We mastered the art of getting "cool." Streaking was a craze that brought relief from the heat along with stares, laughs, gasps and worn-out sneakers. And yes, Groveton had its share of the bare. Water Day became a tradition when one hot day a rowdy senior drenched an unsuspecting junior (or was it vice versa?). The Blizzard of '79 cooled everyone off. And the utmost in "cool" came with the Fonz . . . . . Ahayyy!

The fashion change was remarkable. We left behind the leather jackets of the 50's, minis of the 60's and turned to everlasting Levis and down jackets. It was TOGA! TOGA! and "I can wear higher heels than you."

With the new fashions came the new hair styles. We compromised between the hippie look and the crewcut with permanents, crimping, feathering and wings. Farrah Fawcett-Majors, Dorothy Hamill and the capital of the shampoo companies grew as fast as the world's hair.

Spurred on from the 60's was the fight for equal rights. Billie Jean scored a point for Women's Lib and ERA. Anita Bryant tried to put the "squeeze" on gay rights and Bakke moved forward with the court decision over reverse discrimination. Eighteen year olds got their right to vote, but stayed away from the polls.

The decade was not without fads. Citizen Band radios had the nation speaking a whole new language . . . "Do ya copy, Good Buddy?" Vans were movin' and skateboards groovin' as the nation set to wheels. And for those craving for good old fashioned huffing, puffing, wheezing and keeling over, jogging was something to run for. The Junk Food Junkies were over shadowed by Ewell Gibbon and his hickory nuts as people got back to nature.

When folks weren't running, riding or eating they were planted in their neighborhood theaters spending $3.50 and breaking box offices records. We jumped while Jaws munched, we cheered while Rocky punched and we roared at Marty (Young Frankenstein) Feldman's hunch (what Hump?). Star Wars and Superman brought back fond memories of Buck Rogers. Yet John Travolta (Saturday Night Fever) made the most impact. John pranced, girls glanced and the disco craze was suddenly the "in thing." Yet somehow Groveton was left in the cold for still school dances drew amazing crowds of 5 to 10 people (including the 4 chaperones and the janitor on duty).

Groveton had its share of entertainment mostly in the form of pranks. Ronald McDonald (with a beer can) on top of the old Groveton can't be matched for guts and class. Numerous spray paint attacks on Fort Hunt will always be remembered. And recently Mr. Big Boy climbed aboard our roof top.

Several athletes of the 70's made their mark in history. In the '72 Olympics, Mark Spitz swam for gold and in '76 Nadia Commenci was "perfect." The Redskins made the Super Bowl and the Bullets became World champions. Groveton produced some winners also. We had our speedsters in Herbie Carter and Sherry James. Nancy Soltis was a grand slam in tennis and Vincent Bailey a homerun in baseball. The achievements of Alvin Cowans in football will probably never be matched (at least at Groveton), as he rushed his way to full college scholarship and a shot at the World Champion Pittsburgh Steelers. The girls hockey team made a name for Groveton by capturing a state title . . . Groveton's one and only.

Coaches came and went but none so fast as football coaches, who changed as frequently as principals Mr. Turner to Mr. Rayburn and most recently (drum roll please), the seniors' departure this year, the last class to attend the Ross to the incomparable, incumbent Mr. R. Don Ford.

As principals and coaches changed so did schools. With the senior's departure this year, the last class to attend the old Groveton, the transformation from the "Old Groveton" to the "New" will be complete. This will not only mark the end of nostalgia for the old Groveton but the termination of the decade — one of changes and unpredictables.

Why then do I run? Maybe it's vanity. In my dreams I'd like to think of myself as an athlete. Maybe it's because track is a co-ed sport. Maybe it's because I like to work hard and improve. And when I decrease my time and run well, it's worth all the work.

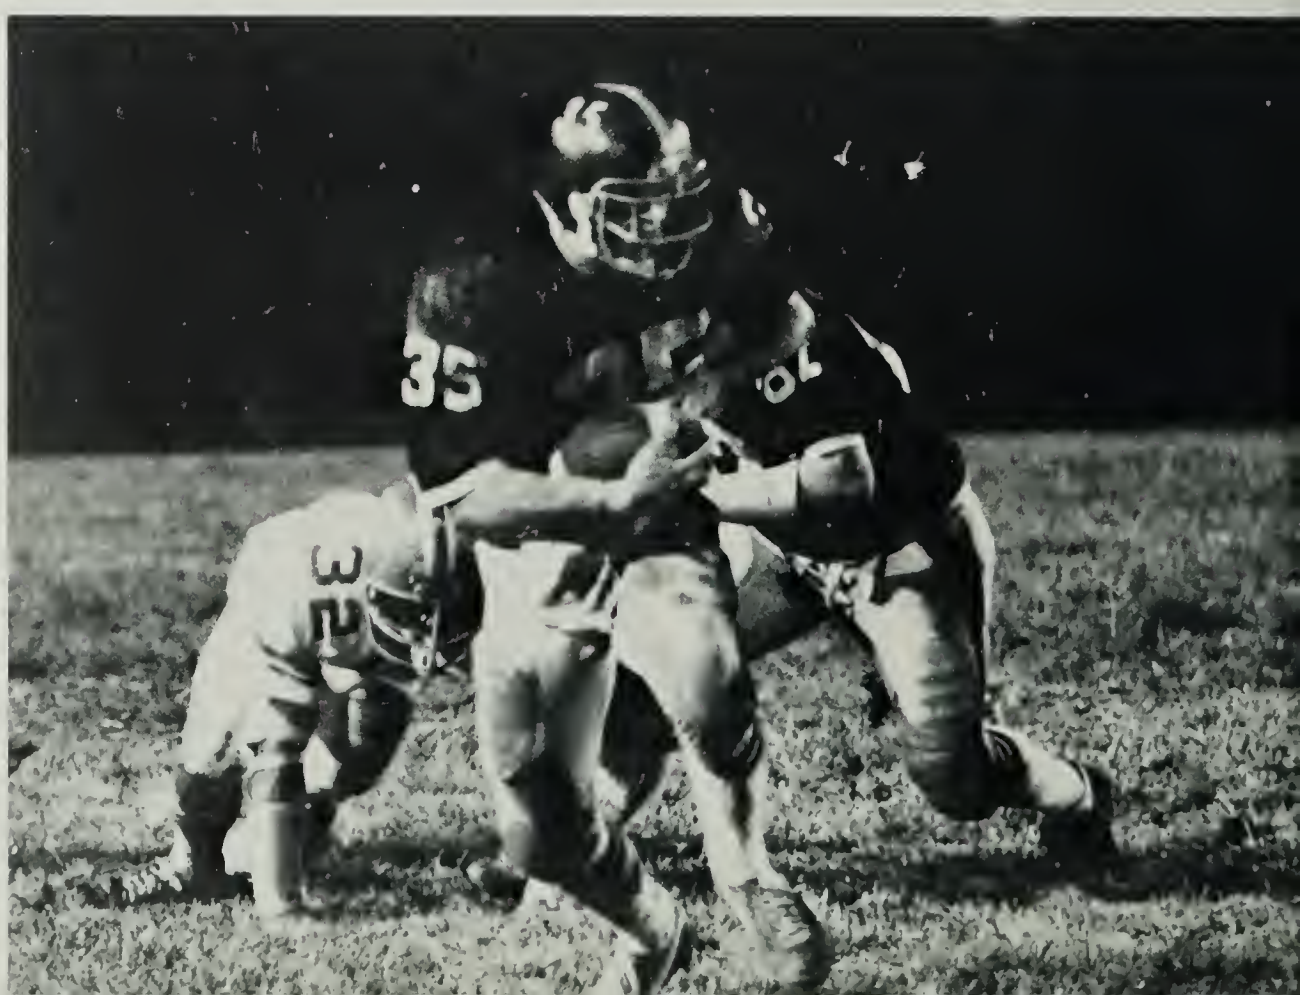
— Irene Rosen

In tennis, you can unlease all the agression you've built up during the day, from your unsuccessful lab in Biology to your plummeting geometry grade. With a good imagination, you can turn that little innocent ball into anything your stressed and strained mind desires.

— Lisa Gills

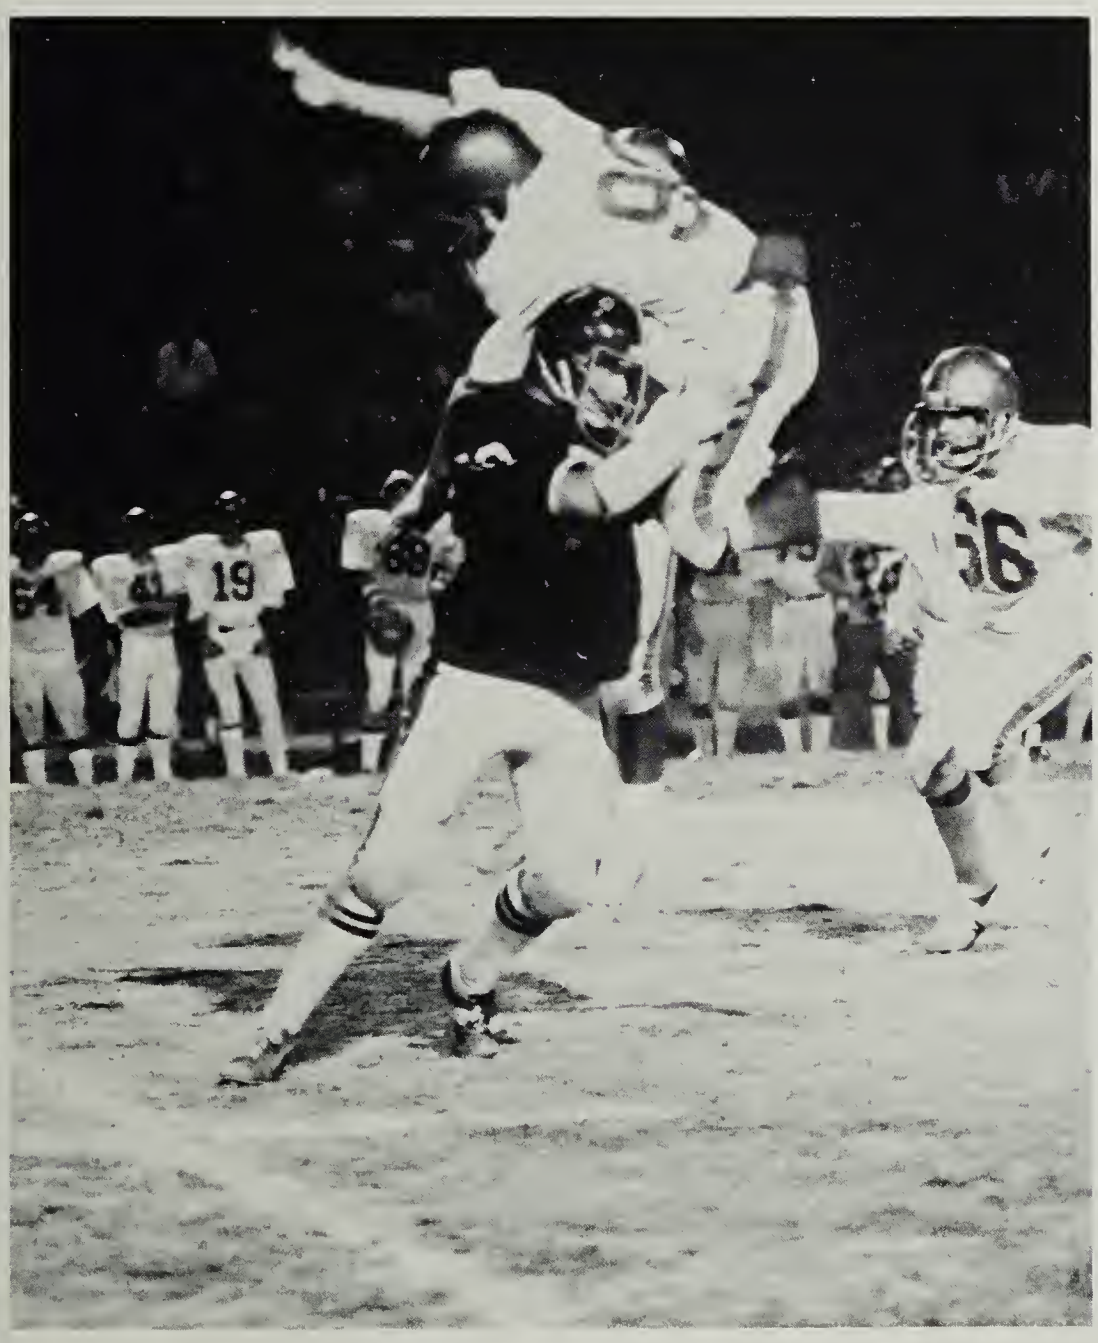
Being a cheerleader means being a loyal fan who loves the thrill of sports competition. Our purpose is to arouse excitement and initiate organized spirit. The hassels of getting to practice on time, learning the cheers and keeping demerits to a minimum are worth it because when the team wins, a part of us wins too.

— The Varsity Cheerleaders



Wrestling is a very important character builder. It helps you to learn about yourself and enables you to react quickly and decisively in pressure situations, building your self confidence.

— J. Connor Fernan



To know that I have the guts to go out on the field and knock heads with anybody, provides a sense of confidence that cannot be taken away . . .

— Steve Livesay

The refs' whistle pierces the air. Automatically I grab a team mate and hug her for reassurance. This is really happening? Satisfaction. Pride. And a sense of accomplishment sweeps over me. I wipe a tear from my eye and a smile plays across my face . . . we won.

— Nancy Grindlay

Give what you have. To some one, it may be better than you dare to think.

Know you what it is to be a child: It is to be something very different from the man of today. It is to have a spirit yet streaming from the waters of baptism; it is to believe in love, to believe in loveliness, to believe in belief, it is to be so little that the elves can reach to whisper in your ear; it is to turn pumpkins into coaches, and mice into horses, lowness into loftiness and nothing into everything, for each child has its fairy godmother in its soul.

FORT

The Groveton Tigers and the Fort Hunt Federals are calling themselves the Grunts now. The name — derived from the first letters of Groveton and the last letters of Fort Hunt — is not pretty, but is is succinct.

It describes the union of the two schools into a massive student body of about 3,350 teenagers — a union that became necessary early this month when Fort Hunt's 1,741 students were displaced by a fire that nearly closed the school forever.

— The Washington Post, Jan. 25, 1979

1st day —

R. Don Ford was out of town. At a meeting to brief student leaders on Fort Hunt's move to Groveton the Fort Hunt Drill Team Captain kept asking, "Did our pompons burn up?" Most of the students were afraid of being attacked by Groveton thugs, and looked even more upset when Kim Benson, Student Body President, joked, "No folks, you can leave your chains and knives at home."

So our arch rivals were coming to Groveton. "Why not Mount Vernon?", we grumbled. "Their parents would rather they didn't go to school then go to Groveton . . . and who's going to protect our school if they decide to burn that down too?" The "Welcome Ft. Hunt" sign went up with little enthusiasm.

Then began the changes necessary for the accommodation of our "guests." Teachers cleaned out half their desks and cleaned up their rooms. All after school activities were cancelled. No late buses, no lunches, and no break. And then Mr. Berry's voice blared over the loud speaker, "Anyone on the school grounds after 12:45 without a pass will be charged with trespassing."

Well EXCU-U-U-U-USE us!

They trudged in wearing their green and white letter jackets and their Lacoste shirts, bringing with them 1700 sooty garbage bags and almost as many news reporters. But if the reporters were trying to dig up some violent reactions they were sadly disappointed. All that appeared on the 6 o'clock news was Dr. Manning, Fort Hunt's principal, saying, "We are Fort Hunt, we will overcome," and Mrs. McKenzie calmly describing how to graph a tangent.

1st week —

Soon everyone had settled into afternoons of Campbell's soup and the soap opera "General Hospital." But the new situation was far from perfect and several problems did arise.

The track team shared the gym in the mornings with Fort Hunt's track team and the girls' basketball team had to practice with Fort Hunt P.E. classes in the afternoons. A fire was started in a trashcan and "Ft. Hunt is number one" was scribbled on our desks and in our bathrooms (though the validity of that statement was questionable under the circumstances).

Some Fort Hunt students began calling themselves "temporary grits." We didn't like that too much, but there were amusing aspects to the situation. Our Drill Team had planned weeks in advance to perform to "Disco Inferno" at the Fort Hunt/Groveton basketball game but had to cancel their performance. The rowdier of Groveton's fans were asked to refrain from using cheers that pertained to fire — "Burn baby burn, Let's get fired up! (An unnecessary precaution since Ft. Hunt fans seemed to be occupied elsewhere the night of the game).

At their nightly meetings Fort Hunt parents kept screaming about maintaining school identity. Meanwhile we began to wonder what was going to happen to Groveton's identity. If you called the school in the afternoon it was answered "Fort Hunt-Groveton," and who wants their school to be called "Grunt?"

Everyday at 12:45 they roared in driving their racy sports cars. We stared at them, and they stared back. In the afternoons walking through the halls and seeing our school, our desks and our classrooms filled with strangers was scary. It was as if Groveton never existed.

1st month —

Solutions to problems came slowly, but they did come. We got back our late buses, our break and our extra-curricular activities. Some of us began to show some empathy for the Fort Hunt students, especially towards their seniors. Lockers were shared and friends made. A grudging respect for each other developed between the two student bodies.

Then too, came the acknowledgement of all the sacrifices that Groveton had made. At a meeting between Groveton and Fort Hunt student leaders, a Fort Hunt student said, "we have inconvenienced Groveton a lot, and should go out of our way not to do so more than absolutely necessary." Dr. Manning was over heard saying, "Thank God for Groveton." Who would have ever expected to hear that from a Fort Hunt principal, especially during basketball season?

And surprises of surprises, in response to the school board's decision to move Fort Hunt to Mount Vernon in March, a petition was circulated at Groveton asking to keep Fort Hunt here. It argued that the move would just disturb another school and disrupt the newly established routine for the Fort Hunt students.

But what were the petitioners really thinking of? The well being of the Fort Hunt student body, or hot soup, "General Hospital," and sunbathing in the spring?

DANA SCHWEITZER; 1978 HOMECOMING QUEEN, ESCORT - ED NICELY

Walking around the crowds of people during the first half of the Homecoming game, I got the distinct impression that they were looking at me like I was an idiot for wearing a dress to a football game. Maybe when they saw my corsage, clumsily pinned on the wrong side of my jacket, they figured I might be on the court.

Riding in that gorgeous blue Trans Am made me feel like Amy Carter or some other VIP, although remarks from the West Springfield side such as "Hey, where's the Homecoming Court?", when we rode by, convinced me I was at Groveton.

After walking onto the field, it seemed like hours had gone by before the voice announced my name.

Clutching the roses, wondering if they were real, and trying to balance the crown on my head, I remembered asking myself, "Who, me?"
